NEW-ROCHELLE.

The Board of Trustees of the village of New-Rochelle held a meeting on Monday evening, when the expert accountant employed to examine the acnts kept by the clerks during the last three years ward is missing. From the examination of the other books it was believed that they did not expose any embezziement of village funds, but did reveal a careless method of keeping the accounts, and the report recommended a different system of performing that duty. J. Lee Nichelson has been employed to feach the village clerk how to keep his accounts properly in the future. . . A new Board of Health for 1893 has been appointed, consisting of Dr. E. B. Teft, Dr. H. K. Huntington, John McNamara, E. B. Tinckney, J. V. John, Charles Erwickery and Dr. Neilson. . . . The commission appointed to supervise improvements to the streets expect to begin their work in about two weeks, when the principal avenues and streets and the sidewalks in the same will receive immediate attention.

Contracts for the extension of the sewerage system in New-Rochelle, have been awarded to Mallory Erothers, for $42,000.

Assembly Hall was crowded on Monday by those who wanted to aid the maintenance funds of the Mount Vernon Hospital and Bureau of Charities, and those who appreciate good music. It was a benefit entertainment given by the boys and girls of the Fifth Avenue Grammar School, under the lead of Professor Affred Hallam, the accompanist being Miss Lizzie R. Duff, one of the teachers. The solos and choruses were creditably given, and notwithstanding the andience hesitatingly obeyed the injunction against recalls because of the long programme, there was one chorus, "Fairyland Waltz," which the audience insisted should be repeated.
